

GET OUTSIDE NATURE CHALLENGE

Welcome to the summer nature play activity challenge! This challenge was designed to give inspiration for ways your child can explore God's world. Through their play they're gaining the benefits of sensory stimulation, fine motor and gross motor development, literacy, an appreciation for God's created world, and so much more. Use the following ideas to stimulate your child's nearby nature play. Turn the page over for what to do with the completed challenge.

MUD PLAY

- Make a mud pie or cake
- Dig a hole in your yard.
What did you find?
- Make mud soup

WOOD

- Climb a tree
- Build a stick house for a creature or fairy.
- Give your favorite backyard tree a name

SHADOWS

- Draw around some driveway shadows -use a garage object or a toy from inside
- Dance in the sun and make your own shadows move around.
